

RIGBY

SPORTING GUNS & RIFLES

Welcome

At John Rigby & Co. heritage is at the heart of all that we do. Since returning to London six years ago we have stayed true to our traditions, making guns in the same time tested ways. This allows our clients to hunt with the same passion as the Rigby adventurers of the past, with confidence that no matter where they travel, whether that be heather-covered hills, snow-capped mountains or sun-baked plains, our guns will stand the test of time.

By popular demand, we've also expanded our carefully selected range of hunting apparel and accessories. Like our guns, these combine the best in modern craftsmanship with traditional materials, techniques and style. For the ultimate Rigby experience, we now also offer bespoke safari packages.

For those of you who are interested in finding out more about what we do, I look forward to welcoming you to our store in London.

Highland Stalker

Hailed as a traditional deerstalking rifle, the new Highland Stalker is inspired by the same smaller calibre rifles Rigby produced at the turn of the 20th century that were used by iconic British adventurers such as Karamojo Bell and Jim Corbett. Rigby regards the Scottish Highlands as the birthplace of stalking and the title befitting the rifle.

“The most exciting rifle that Rigby has created in a generation.”

Highland Stalker

Grade 5 walnut

Mauser 98 action,
 build to original specifications

Traditional Rigby pattern iron sights, regulated to 65, 150 and 250 yards

Action drilled and tapped for scope mounts

Round pistol grip stock

REDEFINING TRADITION

Everyone knows us for large calibre hunting rifles, so the notion of introducing a new small calibre edition required considerable thought. After the phenomenal response to the commemorative Corbett rifle, we decided to model the Highland Stalker on the look of the original .275 Rigby, which was the ubiquitous rifle of its time. We are extremely proud of the result: the Highland Stalker's striking slim lines and rounded grip shape give it a very traditional feel plus its lightweight frame makes it ideal for the hill. Our aim was to redefine tradition to ensure the Highland Stalker becomes a modern icon in its own right.

STANDARD FEATURES

- Grade 5 Turkish walnut stock
- Rigby name and calibre engraved on barrel
- Back sight engraved and regulated to 65, 150 and 250 yards
- Adjustable front sight bead and front sight protector hood

Big Game

True 21st century classics, our Big Game models invoke aspiration and adventure. Hand-built in London on barrelled actions supplied by Mauser, these rifles hark back to the golden age of big game hunting and – like their forebears – are perfectly suited for use around the world.

Original pattern engraving and other classic Rigby design elements sit hand in glove with contemporary features such as a robust, ergonomic stock shape and plasma-nitride finished metal surfaces. Available in three distinct editions: the Big Game, PH and Vintage, made for professional and sporting hunters alike.

“Every hunter using a Rigby becomes part of the shared history of adventure and British gunmaking of the highest quality.”

UPGRADES AND ACCESSORIES

A wide range of Big Game upgrades and accessories are available, including higher grades of Turkish walnut, London Best oil finishing, hand engraving, gold inlaid details and extra colour case hardening. Various additional features are also available, including scope mounts and custom built cases.

Big Game PH

Designed to be the perfect tool for the Professional Hunter, the PH boasts the classic lines and rock solid engineering of the original Big Game rifle. Made in consultation with Professional Hunters in Africa, this version of the multi-award-winning Big Game rifle has been designed as a utilitarian, hardwearing gun for the field with a price point that is considerably lower than the original.

Big Game Vintage

Built to specifications taken from pre-1940s models in our London museum, the Vintage edition of the multi-award-winning Big Game rifle has been designed to capture the spirit and style of the renowned Rigbys of the past. The classic stock shape is taken from historic rifles in our collection and has no cheek piece. It features traditional pattern hand chequering and is made from specially selected grade 5 Turkish walnut, with a Rigby oil finish. The recoil bar and grip cap are colour case hardened.

London Best

Built in much the same way as they were 100 years ago, our London Best rifles incorporate exquisite engraving of choice from some of the world's most renowned engravers and each features a deluxe stock of supreme quality wood. The rifles are fabricated by hand at Rigby's London premises using Mauser actions of various lengths, and premium quality barrels from our select suppliers. A London Best is a fully custom experience and the choice is yours: pick any calibre; choose from Magnum or standard length action, and double or single square bridge; specify your own barrel length and profile; select your wood, and have the stock shaped to your own personal specifications.

“Our premium London Best guns are bespoke, connoisseur's rifles that perfectly exemplify Rigby's reputation as one of the very best gunmakers in the world.”

A man wearing a green cap and jacket is shown in profile, aiming a double rifle. The background is a warm, golden sunset with a bright sun low on the horizon. The rifle is a double-barreled design with a dark wood stock and metal barrels. The man's hands are steady as he aims. The overall mood is serene and focused.

Rising Bite Double Rifle

Named for its unique - and singularly strong - vertical bolt locking system, the Rigby Rising Bite is one of the most famous double rifles ever made. Increasing manufacturing costs meant that regular production at Rigby ceased in 1910, and the last custom order original Rising Bites left the factory in 1932.

Four years ago, Rigby decided to resume production and reverse-engineered an original Rising Bite that had been delivered to the Maharana of Udaipur in 1902. That pristine action has been replicated in modern, top-quality steel with state-of-the-art technology and a master's hand and eye.

“The Rising Bite doesn't just look good: it's capable of consistently achieving 3/4-inch-groups. For me, it's simply the best shooting double rifle on the planet.”

Rigby Safaris

Adventurers and sportsmen have been knocking on our door since the third John Rigby brought his business to London in the 1860s. Since then, legendary hunters, like Jim Corbett and 'Karamojo' Bell, have numbered among the more famous of our customers but the name Rigby has inspired generations of sportsmen from all walks of life to take to the wild places in search of adventure.

Today, we offer bespoke safari experiences that equal the quality and sentiment put into our gunmaking worthy of bearing the Rigby name.

Come with us and forge lasting memories, with Rigby in hand. No matter the continent you wish to hunt, Rigby is your outfitter.

Since the very beginning, Rigby rifles have epitomised adventurous spirit in its most elemental form. Yet, it is a Rigby Safari that makes carrying a Rigby an adventure of a lifetime.
